

DHCC Announces: NEW $1,000 Scholarship for Deaf/Hard of Hearing Students!

Dear Educator,

The Deaf-Hearing Communication Centre, Inc. (DHCC) is excited and pleased to announce the first year of the $1,000 Naureen F. Collazo Scholarship for Deaf/hard of hearing high school seniors moving on to a full-time college/university program. This new scholarship honors Naureen Collazo, a Deaf woman who believed in the importance of education.

Please share this information with anyone you believe may be interested in applying.

Eligibility requirements:

- Must be a Deaf or hard of hearing high school senior attending school in one of the following counties: Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, Philadelphia, Burlington, Camden, or Mercer
- Must be graduating from high school in 2010 and entering college/university full-time in the summer or fall after graduation
- Must submit the attached Application, including 2 reference letters
- Must submit a one-page essay on the subject of “How to advocate for oneself to obtain preferred communication access”

Application Deadline: All applications must be postmarked by May 30, 2010.

Questions? Contact Iris Boshes, DHCC Executive Director at:

630 Fairview Rd, Suite 100
Swarthmore, PA 19081
irisb@dhcc.org
(610) 604-0450 (V/TTY)

This is an outstanding opportunity for Deaf and hard-of-hearing students in your school. Please spread the word to help us help a deserving student. Thank you!

Sincerely,

DHCC Board of Directors

